We'll try somewhere new for our June meeting, Amari Speakeasy, a bar that includes craft cocktails, wines, and 20 varieties of Amaro, an Italian Liqueur. It is upstairs from Savarino's Cucina and you can order food from Savarino's delicious Italian menu as well. To get to Amari, you must walk inside Savarinos and then climb up the staircase on your left, that is, if you can find its secret entrance behind the bookshelf Meet for drinks at 5:30, followed by the meeting at 6:00.

Where: Amari Speakeasy (above Savarino's Cucina)
2121 Belcourt Ave, 37212

TSA Pre-Check and Global Entry

As we get into summer travel season, there have been several news stories about how horrible the security lines are at certain airports. One way to help beat those lines is by signing up for TSA Pre-Check or for Global Entry. For each of these programs you'll undergo a security check and will be fingerprinted. If you are accepted into the program you'll receive a Known Traveler Number (KTN). Add that number to your frequent flyer account for the sixteen airlines that support it and your boarding pass will almost always send you through the Pre-Check security lane. In the past, sometimes being part of a group will route you through that lane but last year the TSA announced they would be cutting back on the number of people who got Pre-Check for free. The cost of Pre-Check is $85 for 5 years. If you travel overseas at all, for just $15 more you can get Global Entry, which allows you to use the kiosks and shorter Customs checkouts once you re-enter the country. You can sign up for either of these programs at the Nashville Airport. Follow these links for more info:
